OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

Students are asked to draw or illustrate their favorite holiday celebration. They may use any medium to illustrate their drawing — including pen, pencil, crayon or paints. It should be on an 8-1/2" x 11" sheet of paper.

Entries must be received by November 20, 2009. Winners will be notified after November 24, 2009.

Winners will be recognized in December 2009 at an Awards Ceremony at the Pantages Theatre.

All entries will become the property of Los Angeles Times in Education and will not be returned. They may be used in calendars, note cards, publicity campaigns, billboards and other media.

The contest is open to any student in grades K-5 who resides in one of the five counties that the Los Angeles Times serves.

All entries must contain full name of student, age, grade, school name, city, teacher name, phone, parent name and signature, plus date.

No purchase necessary.

Judge's decisions are final. Prizes are non-transferable and may not be redeemed for cash. Winners will be notified through their teacher and school.

Employees of Nederlander, Pantages Theatre and the Los Angeles Times and their immediate families are ineligible.

Entries that are submitted outside of the detailed guidelines and rules on this form will be disqualified.
