

Hello Bob!

I didn't get near the fax until today. Hope you got the photos okay. My phone number here in Bangkok is (66-2) 586-0836. The best time to call is morning, like 7-10 am my time, but almost any time is okay. Most days I work at home. If someone answers in Thai, speak slowly, they will know it's for me.

What about the photos so far?

There is an unusual supply of palaeolithic stone tools suddenly available here. They are ones I've often seen in the North that are found in fields - not only caves.

There are about 200 pieces, various shapes, 3-8 ^{inches!} ~~cm~~ length, for US$4.50 each. We'll send a photo soon because a London dealer wants them if you don't. (that's a real threat, I mean, it's true!) As for less expensive pots, it will take some more days to sort through an old storeroom. Is there any urgency? What about the pieces offered so far?

Telephone anytime. Best Roxanna
